

Becky McDuffee was a member of the Champaign-Urbana Sweet Adelines from 1979-2001, where she was Assistant Director for the last 15 of those years. When the director of the Danville Chorus retired, she directed them from 2000-2007 and became a Certified Director. She has been a member of the St. Louis Harmony lead section from 2008 to the present. In Spring 2009, she was elected to a two-year term as Director's Coordinator on the Region 5 Management Team.

Becky was the first reporter of the Sweet Adelines International Convention to the internet group, the Harmonet, and published the 4-Part Harmony Newsletter for several years. She has a B.A. in Rhetoric and a minor in Music from the University of Illinois. She has participated in many ensembles from Oratorio Society to church choir to bell choir to barbershop quartets, all of which she loved. Becky has written numerous show scripts, chaired many committees, and volunteered for many crazy assignments. She currently sings with the 6th place regional quartet, Ethel. It is a joyful life full of harmony: good music, good friends, and good times.
